

Roadstar Transport Limited

Credit Terms

The payment terms for Roadstar Transport Limited are 20th of the following month.

Any outstanding amounts that become overdue will be placed in the hands of a Collection Agency as a matter of policy. It is then the right of Roadstar to place all subsequent shipments on a Cash on Delivery basis. Therefore it is important you contact our Credit Controller whenever you have any queries or disputes.

Customers that operate on special rates that trade outside the terms of the credit agreement, in particular payment terms, the Company reserves the right to withdraw special rate agreements and charge future consignments at the Company's schedule rates.

The customer shall be liable to pay interest at the rate of 5.5% per cent per calendar month or part month on any charges not paid on the due date.

We draw your attention to the conditions of contract, which are printed on the reverse of the company's consignment note and also published on our website.
